

The Life Company makes payments to the plaintiff over time. The money is only "constructively received" as it comes to them over time.

STRUCTURED SETTLEMENT ANNUITY
 PLACED WITH ONE OR MORE OF THE LARGEST LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN THE U.S.
 The Assignment Company funds the future payment obligation by purchasing an annuity from the Life Insurance Company.

The defense writes a check to the Assignment Company; this check will be used to fund the future payments.

ASSIGNMENT COMPANY
 The defense assigns the future payment obligation to the Assignment Company.

The Assignment Company accepts the obligation to make the future payments.

The Assignment Company "owns" the structured settlement annuity. The plaintiff doesn't. If the plaintiff doesn't own it, it is very difficult to take it from them.

DEFENDANT/ PROPERTY & CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY
 The defense has the obligation to make payments to the plaintiff.
